

BRITISHROWING

University Development Day

Club Management

Sarah Leys and Jeff Elms

TEAMWORK | OPEN TO ALL | COMMITMENT

University Club Management

Outline of this session

- Why is British Rowing there for you?
- Who we are
- How we can support the university rowing community
- How do we communicate with you?
- What else we can do to support you

University Club Management

Why is British Rowing there for you?

To provide support so clubs do not have to operate individually but can do so under a collective organisation in the following areas:

- Rowing activity
- Safety
- Competitions
- Coach Development
- Communications
- Club Hub Club management

University Club Management

Who we are

Sarah Leys - Clubs & Systems Officer

- Supporting new & existing clubs with their BR admin
- Helping to manage BR systems such as ClubHub with any additions & changes & suggesting enhancements where necessary
- Supporting volunteers in BR Committees & working with RRCs

Jeff Elms – Competitions Officer

- Supporting new & existing competition organisers
- British Rowing Online Entry System – points and entry queries
- Points allocation for national and international representation
- Supporting volunteers in BR Committees

University Club Management

How we support the university rowing community

- Guidance
- Safety
- Competition
- ClubHub
- Club Finder

University Club Management

How do we communicate with you?

Communication is key. At the start of each new academic year you should have the following roles appointed and named on your club profile

- Club Chair
- Captain and / or Secretary
- Club Safety Adviser
- Welfare Officer

Club Profile Checklist for ClubHub

Emails

Follow BR's social media channels

University Club Management

What else we can do to support you

How to get the most out of British Rowing

Your club profile should be reviewed and updated with each change of committee. These contact details ensure we can:

- stay in touch
- share information to keep you informed and updated on specific changes that might impact your club
- support your committee members to fulfil their roles effectively

University Club Management

Questions?